Are you searching for a serene and harmonious community known for its warm, friendly, and inclusive residents in Belize? Look no further than Progresso Village, an ideal destination for those seeking a tranquil and relaxing escape. Set amidst lush tropical vegetation, this community showcases stunning natural beauty that has been compared to the picturesque landscapes of the Australian outback. One of the remarkable features of Progresso Village is the enchanting Progresso Lagoon, which grants you the opportunity to embark on leisurely cruises. You can navigate the beautiful waters, traveling to Laguna Seca, Corozal Bay, the adjoining rivers, and even the expansive sea if you wish. Located just off the main road, this gated community provides convenient access to Corozal Town, as well as the town of Orange Walk in the opposite direction, both within a 30-minute drive. Major road improvements are underway which will make this area much more accessible in the future. If you possess an interest in local culture and history, Progresso offers captivating avenues to delve into the mysteries of the Mayan civilization. The region is studded with ancient Mayan temples, and you can explore... contact agent for more info.
