In the depths of the Bocawina Mayflower Agriculture area, but close enough to civilization lies this little family jewel of a farm. A good crop is harvested each year, with proven revenue. Limes, oranges, coconut and pineapples are the major annual income earners. There are also a few Avocado pear and bvegetables for own use. This farm requires little upkeep as most trees are now mature. Just 7 miles off the main road and across a small crystal clear river lies its 41 acres of beautiful trees, fertile soil and a perenial creek. The beginnings of a concrete homestead and a lean to garage can be found at the bottom of the valley, a more inspiring person may choose to build a beautiful farm house on the top of the hill and gaze at the beautiful vista that surrounds you. This land if perfect for any farmer looking to relocate to Belize, or be a gentleman farmer - a pretty much turn key affair. We are looking for cash buyers only please. Talk to Theresa – a farm like this is hard to come by!
