H4444 - Mennonite House in Consejo Shores

Location: 946 Jaguar palm - Consejo - Consejo Shore - Corozal
Beds: 3 | Baths: 2 | Land Area: 19882 | Frontage: Road-Front

This new, move in ready Mennonite home on 3-foot stilts, sits on almost 20,000 sf of land in Consejo Shores. This never lived in house and secluded surroundings are perfect for someone that likes privacy. The lot has been almost completely cleared and is ready to be planted with your choice of vegetation. The property is equipped with a septic system, a well and an electrical panel which are fully wired and ready to be connected to the grid or your choice of off grid system. Running water will require the installation of a pump, pressure tank and water heating system if desired in the existing mechanical room and two portable air conditioners are on the premises. Also to note, the land taxes on the property have been paid for the next four years. This property is part of the Consejo Shores neighbourhood and fees to the Parks and roads association will give you access to a 9 hole golf course, and five parks with access to the bay. A great place to spend time with family and friends.
