L5704 - A Jungle Lodge in The Making On Swasey River

Location: Swasey River - Red Bank - Stann Creek

Beds: 4 | Baths: 4 | Land Area: 914760 | Frontage: Water-Front

In this beautiful setting along the Swasey River, you will find 21 acres of prime land with an off-grid lifestyle featuring, multiple residences, solar power, a lithium battery with 2 inverters, and an auto-start generator as backup. It has a well, which goes down 30 feet with water found at 10 feet, which gets filtered as it travels to a 600-gallon storage tank which then gets filtered again before entering the house. The property features small orchards of coconut trees, mulberry trees, pineapple, papaya, banana, and acres more of natural foliage. The property borders the Swasey River where fishing is plentiful and is home to a wide variety of birds including the Scarlett Macaws who migrate to this area of Belize every year. Nearby you will hear the sounds of Howler Monkeys and other varieties of native wildlife that are drawn to the lazy Swasey River. The open living space concept in all the houses allows for cooling cross breezes through the large wrap-around windows. Relax on the covered front porch and take in the natural beauty of the river, and the picturesque mountains in the distance.
